A Quaker's Letter.

TO THE WATCHMAKER.—I herewith send thee my pocket clock, which greatly standeth in need of thy friendly correction. The last time he was at thy school, he was in no way reformed; for I perceive by the index of his face that he is a liar, and the truth is not in him. Examine him, therefore, and prove him, I beseech thee, thoroughly, so that thou mayest, being very well acquainted with his inward frame and disposition, draw him from the error of his ways, and teach him the way wherein he should go.—
It grieves me to think of him, for verily I am of the opinion that his body is corrupted with discase.

It grieves me to think of him, for verily I am of the opinion that his body is corrupted with discase. body is corrupted with disease .- E. Torrey. Cleanse him, therefore; for I will place him for a few days under thy care, and pay for his board as thou at least once in each week for six weeks in succession-or that said complainant cause a copy of this requirest. I entreat thee, friend John, that when thou layest the correcting hand upon him, let it be retailed for their appearance."

I entreat thee, friend order to be personally served on said Joseph Torrey, Charles Torrey, and Mary E. Torrey, at least twenty days before the expiration of the time above limited for their appearance."

I certify that the above is a true copy of the control of the time above is a true copy of the control of the control of the time above is a true copy of the control of the control of the time. without passion, lest thou shouldst drive him to destruction. Do thou regulate his motions for a time to GRAND HAVEN ADVERTISEMENTS come, by the motion of the Light that ruleth the day; and when thou NEW GOODS findest that he is converted from the error of his ways, do thou send him home, with a just bill of thy charges, drawn up in the spirit of moderation, and it shall be paid to Spring & Summer Goods!! thee, in the root of all evil.

Tears.—There is a sacredness in tears. They are not a mark of weakness, but of power. They oft speak more eloquently than ten thousand tongues. They are the messengers of overwhelming grief, of deep contrition, of unspeakable love. Look at the strong, convulsive emotion of the breast when deeply agitated, when the fountain of feeling is rising, and when tears gush forth. Oh, speak not harshly of the stricken one, when weeping in silence. Break not the solemnity by rude laughter, or intrusive foot-steps. There is a pleasure in tears—a holy pleasure! If there were none on earth to shed a tear for me, I should be loth to liveand if no one could weep over my grave, I could never die in peace. -Dr. Johnson.
